

What is MY INSECT pollinator?

One pair of wings

Two pairs of wings

Wings longer than body and held delta span

BEE FLY

Wings shorter or as long as body and held overlapped

HOVERFLY

Wings of varied lengths and held in varied positions

Other FLIES

BUTTERFLY

MOTH

Front wings powdery and mouthparts like a tube

yes

Tip of antennae is club-like

no

Small to large body, often very hairy. Obvious antennae

WASP or BEE

Very small body <2mm, with feathery wings

THRIP

Front wings hardened

yes

Hind legs resemble "chicken drumsticks"

no

BEETLE

yes

Short antennae and no obvious cerci ("tails")

GRASS-HOPPER and LOCUST

Long hair-like antennae and two cerci ("tails")

KATYDID or TREE CRICKET

These images are intended to be impressions and not necessarily scientifically correct.